Social Media Policy

Thank you for connecting with the City of Crystal through social media. The City of Crystal uses social media to present news and information relating to the City of Crystal.

Communications made through social media do not constitute legal or official notices by the City of Crystal, its agencies, officials or employees. For legal or official notices, please refer to legally-required methods which include the Crystal City Hall bulletin board or public notices published in the City's official newspaper.

Different social media sites, such as Twitter, Facebook, LinkedIn and YouTube, have different platforms with different audiences. Messages may or may not appear on one or more of these sites, and are often modified to suit these varying platforms and audiences.

We encourage your questions, comments, and concerns, but please note this is a moderated online site and not a public forum. The City of Crystal has the right to reasonably regulate the time, place and manner of speech; therefore, it follows the following policy statements.

Once posted, the City of Crystal reserves the right to delete submissions that contain:

1. Vulgar language.
2. Personal statements of any kind.
3. Comments that target or belittle any individual or ethnic, racial or religious group.
4. Links to other sites or information.
5. Promotion or endorsement of commercial services, products or entities.
6. Content that is off topic.
7. Advocacy of illegal activity.
8. Promotion of particular services, products, political organizations or candidates.
9. Copyrights or trademark infringement.
10. Any other items the City of Crystal deems as inappropriate.

Furthermore, the City of Crystal may ban repeat violators from posting to the City's social media, as well as remove comments at any time, whether or not they violate the Comment Policy.

Please note that the comments expressed on this site may not reflect the opinions and positions of the City of Crystal. If you have any questions concerning the operation of this moderated online site, please contact the Assistant City Manager at kim.therres@crystalmn.gov or at 763-531-1132.
